

Leominster Choral Society

Help us to Make Music

Our Choral Society has been active in Leominster for well over a century - part of the great British tradition of amateur music making.

We are entirely self funded, relying on subscriptions and ticket sales to support the considerable cost of running the choir.

Would you like to help us by becoming a Friend of Leominster Choral Society?

For an annual membership fee £40 pa single individual or £65 pa for two individuals at the same address , our Friends benefit from free tickets and special reserved seats at our two annual concerts, held in the beautiful setting of Leominster Priory. You also receive complimentary interval refreshments and concert programmes. Friends are also invited to join our singing members at our annual dinner held soon after the end of our summer term – and to attend our final rehearsals in the Priory

In recognition of your support, your name would be listed in our programme acknowledgments and you would receive advance notice of forthcoming events.
